The fellowing report was read: To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Kent county. Gentlemen-Your chairman and clerk respectfully report that they have not signed a contract with the Fenton Metallie company for furnishing vault fixtures for the new court house buildmr, as directed by your honorable body, for the reason that no good and sufficient bond has been presented to them for their approval, indemnifying Kent county from any loss that might ensue for infringement, or otherwise, and because we desire to give your thonorable body an opportunity to consider the petitions which accompany this report. The Fenton company has applied to the supreme court and obtained an order requiring the chairman and clerk to show cause why a mandamus should not issue compelling them to sign said contract, and said order is made returnable and will be heard to-
